1. INTRODUCTION

Governance refers to how a charity is run, directed and controlled, and is concerned with the systems and processes for ensuring its overall direction, effectiveness, supervision and accountability.

Good governance practice requires policies and procedures to be in place to ensure that Social Care Ireland (“the Company”) is run effectively, adheres to regulatory and legal requirements and performs to the highest sectoral and best practice standards, providing confidence to all stakeholders. The Board of Directors (“the Board”) has the ultimate responsibility to ensure good governance practice is applied throughout the Company.

The purpose of this Finance Policy and Procedures is to set down the principles and ground rules on all aspects of the Company’s financial management and control. The scope of this policy document is to encompass all financial management systems and control procedures that are in operation in the Company.

The overall responsibility for effective governance and the implementation of proper financial management rests with the Board but may well involve all staff members, whether paid or volunteers. It is essential that the Board has a good knowledge and understanding of the Company and its finances so that, as far as possible, the continued viability of the Company and its charitable activities can be assured, with the needs of beneficiaries being met. With proper financial controls and procedures in place, the Board should be able to identify financial risks and plan for their management at an early stage. These will enable the Board to be fully aware of the Company’s overall financial position now and in the future.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL - MANAGING THE COMPANY’S RESOURCES RESPONSIBLY

The Board’s main legal responsibilities can be summarised as follows:

- Comply with the Company’s governing document and the law
- Ensure the Company is carrying out its purposes for the public benefit
- Act in the Company’s best interests
- Manage the Company’s resources responsibly
- Act with reasonable care and skill
- Ensure the Company is accountable

The Board must act responsibly, reasonably and honestly. This is sometimes called the duty of prudence. Prudence is about exercising sound judgement. The Board must:

- Make sure the Company’s assets are only used to support or carry out its purposes
- Avoid exposing the Company’s assets, beneficiaries or reputation to undue risk
- Not over-commit the Company
- Take special care when investing or borrowing
- Comply with any restrictions on spending funds

KEY ELEMENTS OF EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT AND FINANCIAL CONTROL

The Board will ensure that all money and resources are properly used, managed and accounted for. In order to be accountable, suitable systems must be in place and kept up to date. The Board should:

- ensure that they have robust and effective financial controls in place, with clear policies and procedures to deal with, for example, income and expenditure and protecting the Company from financial crime such as theft or fraud
- consider budgets and monitor actual results as the year progresses against budget
- plan and monitor its income and outgoings so that it can meet its short-, medium- and long-term goals.
- analyze the Company's sources of income and expenditure, avoiding over-dependence on any one source, if possible, and ensuring that its income generation is on target, complies with the law and does not expose the Company to undue risk
- ensure the establishment of proper management and control procedures
- establish systems to ensure that the Company follows good practice in all aspects of fundraising - where the Company fundraises - and complies with any legal requirements
- oversee the effective use of staff and volunteer resources to enable the Company meet its charitable aims
- have access to independent professional advice, when necessary

The Board regularly assesses and monitors the overall financial position of the Company and takes steps to ensure that its funds can continue to be used for the purposes for which they were given. Board meetings are held on a regular basis at which finance is a standing item and financial reports, management accounts, budgets, financial projections and updates are provided. The Trustees, as a Board, are collectively responsible and accountable for ensuring and monitoring that the organisation is performing well, is solvent, and complies with all its obligations.

BOARD FINANCIAL COMMITTEE

The Board has established a Committee for Finance Oversight with Terms of Reference, which oversees the Company's financial control and fulfils a number of financial oversight obligations. The chair elected within this group reports back to the board with support from the accounts administrator.
